

Writing a Practical Parenting Plan: Tips for Parents is one 2 hour class taught in an educational and interactive format that specifically addresses the needs of parents who must develop a Parenting Plan for submission to the court in their dissolution or paternity action.

Writing a Practical Parenting Plan is designed to build on the skills and concepts provided in the statewide mandatory parenting class for divorcing parents and in Positive Solutions for Shared Parenting.

Writing a Practical Parenting Plan utilizes a variety of teaching methods including presentation of information; written exercises, and group discussion.

This class is not intended to provide participants with a completed Parenting Plan for submission to the court. This class does not provide legal advice to participants but instead presents ideas for developing a Parenting Plan from a psychological perspective to decrease conflict and improve practical day to day co-parenting.

Presents:

Writing a Practical Parenting Plan: Tips for Parents

A workshop for divorced, separated or never married parents who need to develop a shared Parenting Plan

The goals of the class include:

- ◆ Learning about the parts of a Parenting Plan required by Florida Statute
- ◆ Gaining insight into the important elements of a Parenting Plan from a day to day co-parenting perspective
- ◆ Learning about common pitfalls in writing Parenting Plans
- ◆ Understanding the details of a Parenting Plan that can help reduce future co-parenting conflict
- ◆ Exploring individual options and preferences for your Parenting Plan

This class assumes parents are pursuing shared parental responsibility and a time sharing plan involving both parents. The class will not address sole parental responsibility plans as a result of domestic violence, child abuse or other issues.

Fee for the class is $50.00 per person ($20.00 per person with certified certificate of indigence). Parents are expected to attend separate classes unless both parents agree to attend the same class. Participants must pay for the class at the time of registration. Due to the limited class size, no refunds will be given unless the class is full when your registration is received. Classes may be cancelled for low attendance and refunds will be issued. Parents are encouraged to first attend one of the mandatory education classes for divorcing parents offered in each county as well as the presenter’s class Positive Solutions for Shared Parenting.
